CHAPTER II

ADMISSION OF STUDENTS AND LISTENERS TO THE UNIVERSITY

- 5. The Senate shall determine the admission rules of the students and supplementary study listeners to the University every academic year.
- 6. During the admission process to the University, the University's rector (hereinafter Rector):
 - 6.1. shall approve the composition of the Admission commission that organizes and implements the admission of students and registers the students to the first course (year);
 - 6.2. shall carry out the admission of supplementary study and other listeners.
- 7. The Senate shall determine every year the total number of places of studies after having taken into account possibilities to assure the quality of studies and research.
- 8. The students and listeners of supplementary studies shall be admitted to the University following the laws of the Republic of Lithuania, Description of general admission procedure to the studies of the first cycle and the integrated studies at the Lithuanian higher education institutions approved by the Lithuanian Association of Higher Education Institutions, and admission rules of students and listeners of supplementary studies for certain year approved by the Senate.
- 9. The persons, who have at least the secondary level education, are admitted to the studies of the first cycle and the integrated studies by means of open competition, taking into account their studying results and entrance exams. They have to satisfy other criteria determined in the admission rules of students and listeners of supplementary studies for certain year approved by the Senate.
- 10. The persons, who have graduated the University studies of the first cycle, or who have higher college education and have completed additional studies, are admitted to the studies of the second cycle by means of open competition, taking into account their studying results and entrance exams. They have to satisfy other criteria determined in the admission rules of listeners and students for certain year approved by the Senate.
- 11. The additional requirements of language skills may be set for the persons, who want to be admitted to the joint study program with foreign higher education institution(s).
- 12. The citizens of the foreign countries, who have at least the secondary level education recognized in Lithuania and permit of temporary or permanent residence in the Republic of Lithuania, may study at the University and take the places funded or not funded by the State.
- 13. The persons, who have acquired education in foreign institutions, may be enrolled to the places funded by the State by means of open competition or apply for the scholarships in the procedure specified in the legal acts, if they are:
 - 13.1. the citizens of the Republic of Lithuania, Member-States of the European Union, or the Member-States of the European Economic Space, or
 - 13.2. the citizens of the foreign countries, which do not belong to the European Union or the European Economic Space, who have permanent residence permit in the Republic of Lithuania, and the persons without citizenship, or
 - 13.3. foreigners of the Lithuanian origin, who present the certificate of the Lithuanian origin issued in the country, from which they come.

14. The persons, not satisfying the criteria listed in the clause 13 herein, may be admitted to the University by means of open competition to study for their own account, unless the international contracts or other legal acts determine otherwise.
15. The listeners of supplementary studies shall be admitted to university according to rules and deadlines defined in admission rules.
16. 16. The listeners wishing to study single subjects may be admitted to the University at any time during the academic year. They shall submit written request addressed to Rector.
17. The persons admitted as students or listeners shall make the contract of studies in the form approved by the Rector with the University. The student and listener are considered enrolled to the University from the day when they sign the contract of studies with the University.
18. The list of the students enrolled to the University shall be approved by the Rector.
19. When the study contract (printed or in form of e-form) between the University and the student is made, the Rector shall use it as a ground to pass an order regarding the student's enrollment, where the student's name, surname and registration number have to be indicated.

19.¹ Upon mutual agreement of both Parties e-form of Study Contract shall be considered of the same power as printed.

20. The registered student, awarded his/her registration number, username and password, shall verify his/her personal and contact data during the first login to LSMUSIS. Student shall:
 - 20.1. in case of inaccuracies in contact data – correct them entering actual data;
 - 20.2. in case of inaccuracies in personal data – submit a request (inside LSMUSIS) to correct his/her personal data. Only the responsible person assigned by the head of the Center of Studies may change the personal data in the University's database of study information system and the register of students;
 - 20.3. in case of objective changes of personal data (change of first or second name, etc.) during the studies, submit a request for the update of personal data and enclose copies of documents proving that change. Only the responsible person assigned by the head of the Center of Studies may change the personal data in the University's database of study information system and the register of students;
 - 20.4. Submit e-requests related to study process (academic leave, electives, academic notes, etc.).
21. The student is responsible for correctness and update of his/her personal and contact data present in the database of study information system. The student has to check his/her personal and contact data regularly. If the student does not present information on the changed personal data or contact data, the University shall not be held liable for the cases when the student does not get the information intended for him/her because of this reason.
22. All electronic requests and documents submitted through LSMUSIS are considered of the same power as in written or printed form. Should information system for studies be replaced by other one, all provisions of Study Regulation are addressed to the new system.
23. The student (listener) ID card is issued to all the students and listeners admitted to the University. The card shall show the student's picture, name, surname, Faculty, study program and student's registration number. The issuance and usage procedure of the student (listener) ID card shall be determined by the Rector.

CHAPTER III

The decision shall be executed by the Rector's order. The student shall be notified by the faculty dean about the decision to transfer him/her to the place completely funded by the State electronically not later than in 2 work days after the decision-making.

90. If the person, who had studied in the place not funded by the State was transferred to the place funded by the State, the tuition fee paid for the current semester shall be refunded following the clauses 76.3 - 76.4 of this Regulation.

CHAPTER VII PROCESS OF THE STUDIES

SECTION ONE GENERAL PROVISIONS OF THE PROCESS OF THE STUDIES

91. One of the main features of the University is openness to everyone regardless of the attitudes (including the religion), nationality, gender or social position.
92. The organization of studies at the University shall be supervised by the vice rector for studies, coordinated by the Center of Studies, organized by the faculties, and implemented by the units conducting the studies.
93. The teaching language of the studies is Lithuanian. The other languages may be used to teach only in the cases when:
- 93.1. the content of the study program is related to another language;
 - 93.2. the foreign lecturers read the lectures or conduct other academic sessions;
 - 93.3. the studies are carried out according to the joint study programs or study programs, which completion results in double qualification degree, and the part of these programs is carried out in other countries or higher education institutions, where the teaching language is not Lithuanian;
 - 93.4. the studies are conducted according to the study programs meant for the studies in the foreign language or in case of academic exchange.
94. The students study in the groups and flows according to the timetable of studies. Number of groups is determined by the Faculty's dean according to the planned number of the students, following the legal acts and taking into account the foreign language of the student and level of that language skills. Study Center compose groups before June 30 for the coming study year.
95. The group of students is represented by the elder elected by that group, and the course is represented by the elder elected by the groups' elders. The election procedure of these elders is determined by the Student Representative Office.

SECTION TWO CALENDAR OF THE STUDIES

96. The study year at the University starts on September 01 and finishes on August
97. The academic year is divided into semesters: the fall semester lasts from September 01 until January 31 and the spring semester lasts from February 01 until June 30.
98. The legal holidays during the school year are provided with regard to the holidays and rest days determined in the legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania. In summer the students are granted the continuous holidays of at least one month.
99. The syllabuses and timetable of the studies regulate the procedure of studies.
100. The syllabuses of the next school year are prepared and approved in the Senate before November 01 of the current year.
101. When the syllabuses are approved in the Senate, the calendar of studies for the next academic year is planned (beginning and end of the academic year, retake weeks, etc.)

and published on the University's website.

SECTION THREE TIMETABLES OF THE STUDIES

102. The studies are organized according to the timetables of the studies, which are made for the semesters of the studies, according to the study programs.
103. The timetable of the studies consists of two parts:
 - 103.1. calendar timetable of studies;
 - 103.2. detailed timetable of the subject/module.
104. the calendar timetables of the studies of the student groups of the next school year are formed in the Center of Studies until February 01 after they have been coordinated with the manager of the unit conducting the studies and-or module and dean of the faculty, where the study program is conducted. They are approved by the manager of the Center of Studies and published on the University's website, in the column of academic information in the Lithuanian and English languages, or in any other additional language, if necessary.
105. The dates of the completion of academic failures of the semesters and the whole academic year have to be indicated in the calendar timetable. The re-examination timetable of the academic failures are made in the dean's offices of the faculty, transferred to the Center of Studies and published online at least 2 months before the end of the semester. The reexamination timetable of the academic failures of the year is made and announced together with the re-examination timetable of the academic failures of the spring semester.
106. When the calendar timetable is made, it is necessary to follow the arrangement consistency of the subjects/modules taking into account the logics of the study program and interrelations between the subjects.
107. The calendar timetables may be changed only if the Senate changes the study plan of certain study program. In case good reasons exist in unforeseen situations and change of calendar timetable is unavoidable, it can be changed by the decision of the Vicerector for studies under request from the faculty dean and mediation of the head of Study Center.
108. The detailed timetables of the subjects/modules are formed for the academic year on the basis of the semesters. The form, time, duration and place of the contact work shall be indicated in the detailed timetables.
109. The detailed timetable of the subject/module is formed in the Center of Studies (having it discussed with the deans) and approved by its manager. The detailed timetables are prepared together with the units conducting studies. The detailed timetables of each year are announced on the University's website until August 01 in Lithuanian and English, and in any other language, if necessary.
110. The observation of the detailed timetable is mandatory for all the units conducting the studies and students
111. The student has to go to the sessions of contact work hours. If the student misses more than 20 percent of the contact work hours of certain subject/module without any justifiable reason (if this makes at least 30 contact work hours), s/he has to repeat the subject/module.
112. The student has to participate in the evaluation of the achievements according to the section IV of the chapter IX of this Regulation.
113. The unit responsible for the subject shall determine how the student should work off the sessions missed due to justifiable circumstances. The working-off procedure of the missed sessions approved by the unit's manager shall be published on the University's intranet. Department responsible for the subject decides regarding the rules of evaluation in cases when total number of missed classes without justifiable reasons makes up to 20% of subject/module contact hours.

114. If the session is not carried out on the time set in the timetable due to the lecturer's fault, the student is entitled to address the manager of the unit, where s/he studies, and the manager of the Center of Studies for setting the new time of the session, following the clause 115 herein.
115. The detailed timetable of the subject/module can be changed during the studies in the following procedure after having coordinated the changes with the faculty's dean and elder of the group or the course:
 - 115.1. the minor changes of the sessions of one unit in the detailed timetable of the problem-based studies before the cycle starts (changed time, date of the sessions, changing of places of several sessions, etc.) caused by unforeseen reasons are done by the coordinator of studies of the Center of Studies following the coordinated written presentation of the module's supervisor and permit of the manager of the Center of Studies;
 - 115.2. during the problem-based studies, when it is an objective necessity to change the session's time, the unit's manager has to present the motivated written application coordinated with the module's supervisor to the Center of Studies not later than 3 days before the changed date; the change is possible only with the permit of the manager of the Center of Studies;
 - 115.3. in case it is necessary to change the detailed timetable of the subject/module not of the problem-based studies during the academic year, the manager of the department/clinic/institute has to present the motivated written application to the Center of Studies not later than one week before the changed date; the change is done by the coordinator of studies of the Center of Studies having the permit of the manager of the Center of Studies;
 - 115.4. if the students, who came on the basis of academic exchange, study certain subject/module, the changes of the detailed timetable have to be coordinated additionally with the Center of International Relations and Studies;
 - 115.5. the changes of the detailed timetable are published on the University's website, and the information about changes is sent to the students of certain groups by Intranet's e-mail without delay.
 - 115.6. The date and time of the evaluation of the students' achievements are indicated in the detailed timetable of the subject/module. The timetable of the exams taken in sessions is made and announced according to the procedure defined in the clause 109 herein.
 - 115¹. Under unforeseen circumstances directly related to the classes in particular premises, Study Center may change detailed timetable without procedures states in clause 115.
116. The permit to the student to study according to the individual timetable can be given by the Faculty's dean, who receives the reasoned application of the student. The permit to study according to the individual timetable shall be granted or refused in 5 work days after submission of certain application.
117. If the Faculty's dean permits the student to study according to the individual timetable, the student shall coordinate the individual timetables of studies and evaluation of the subject with the unit conducting the studies immediately and not later than in 2 weeks after having received the permit of the Faculty's dean.
118. The student shall submit the timetables coordinated according to the clauses 116-117 herein for the approval of the Faculty's dean not later than in 5 work days after their coordination with the unit conducting the studies.

119. The Faculty's dean shall make the decision regarding approval of the individual timetable coordinated with the unit conducting the studies in 5 work days after submission of the coordinated timetable and shall inform the student not later than in 2 work days.

SECTION THREE REGISTRATION TO STUDIES

120. The Admission commission registers the students to the first course.
121. When the semester is over, the faculty's dean registers the successful students for the studies of the next semester; the registration is formalized by the dean's decree which shall be checked in LSMUSIS according to clauses 123.1-123.4.
122. The decree of the Faculty's dean shall be issued in 5 work days after the deadlines specified in the clauses 303.3 and 303.6.
123. By the decree of the Faculty's dean:
- 123.1. it is confirmed that the student is transferred to higher semester, or
 - 123.2. the student is obliged to submit the application for completion of academic failures and the student is registered temporary until the Rector makes a decision to allow the student to complete the academic failures, or
 - 123.3. the student, who has applied for completion of academic failures, is registered temporary until the rector makes a decision to allow the student to complete the academic failures, or
 - 123.4. the student is not registered and the suggestion is made to the Rector to expel the student.
124. The Faculty's dean shall submit the decree to the Study Center not later than until February 20 (for the fall semester) or until September 20 (for the spring semester).
125. Students enrolled before year 2017 shall deliver the filled-in student's credit book to the dean's office for the dean's decree within the first 10 work days of the new semester.
126. If the student is not registered for the studies following the procedure defined in the clause 123 herein without any justifiable reason, the warning shall be sent by registered mail stating that if the student does not register for the studies following the procedure defined in the clause 123 herein in 10 work days, s/he shall not be allowed to continue the studies and s/he will be expelled. If the student does not register for studies within the additional term, the student is not allowed to continue the studies and is expelled from the University. In such a case the Rector shall make the decision following the recommendation of the Faculty's dean not later than in 2 work days after the closest meeting of the rector's office.
127. The student shall submit to the Faculty's dean the document confirming the justifiable circumstances which resulted missing deadline indicated in the clause 124 herein as soon as possible, but not later than the Rector passes the order to expel the student. If the Faculty's dean decides that there was justifiable circumstance regarding the missed registration deadline indicated in the clause 124 herein, students enrolled before year 2017 shall deliver the filled-in student's credit book for the dean's decree to dean's office within 5 work days after approval of the justifiable circumstance.

SECTION FIVE REGISTRATION TO THE ELECTIVE SUBJECTS

128. The manager of the unit conducting studies registers the study program of elective subjects prepared by the unit conducting studies and approved by the Faculty's Council in the University's database of the information system of elective subjects (hereinafter database of elective subjects) until each April 10. When the elective subject is registered in the database of elective subjects, there should be indicated the number of groups, maximal and minimal number of students in the group determined with regard to real possibilities of the University's unit conducting the studies.

129. The dean of certain Faculty approves the list of elective subjects presented for the students for the next academic year and made according to the data of the database of elective subjects, containing the information on the volume of elective subjects offered for each semester in credits, until April 15 of the current year. The elective subjects in this list have to be grouped according to the semesters, when the subject is to be studied. If necessary, the elective subjects may be grouped in the list additionally to other criteria. The studies of the elective subjects not approved by the Faculty's dean are not conducted.
130. The students shall select and register for the studies of elective subjects in the database of elective subjects, by marking the desired elective subjects.
131. The competitive queues of the students are not formed for selection and registration. The students are registered for the studies of elective subjects on the ground of the first-call until the maximal possible number of students is collected in the study program of certain elective subject. When the maximal possible number of students is reached, the registration to the study program, of that elective subject is stopped. In absence of free places in the desired study program, the student has to register for another elective subject.
132. If the minimal number of students indicated in the study program of the elective subject is not reached, the studies of the elective subject are not conducted during that period. The students, who have chosen the elective subject, which studies will not be conducted during certain period, shall be informed by the dean of appropriate faculty hereof not later than in 5 work days after closure of the database of elective subjects by e-mail address appointed to student by the University. In such a case the Faculty's dean shall coordinate the selection with the student and register the student for some other elective subject following the clause 141 herein.
133. The students have to select and register for the elective subject provided in the study program with regard to the number of credits granted for them. It is not allowed to register for the elective subjects in the database of elective subjects by exceeding the number of credits planned for some particular study program.
134. The students are entitled to study individual subjects or modules taught at the University as additional elective subjects, which exceed the volume of the study program. Such studies cannot obstruct the carrying out of the study program studied by the student. The fee in the amount determined by the Council is collected for the elective subjects specified in this clause. This fee is proportional to the price of the number of credits of the subject or module selected by the student. The separate contract has to be signed between the student and the University regarding these elective subjects.
135. The list of elective subjects for the first-year students is available in the database of elective subjects from the beginning of the academic year until September 15 of the current year. The list of elective subjects for the next academic year (higher course of studies) is available in the database of elective subjects from April 16 until May 10 of the current year.
136. The first-year students must get familiar with the descriptions of the elective subjects of the first course's program, select the number of elective subjects and credits provided in the study program and register for them until September 15 of the current year.
137. The students must get familiar with the descriptions of the elective subjects of next academic year (higher course of studies), select the number of elective subjects and

- credits provided in the study program and register for them until May 10 of the current year.
138. After the deadlines specified in the clauses 136 and 137 herein, the students' registration for the studies of elective subjects in the database of elective subjects is stopped and the database is closed without allowing making any changes.
139. The students, who return after the academic leave, suspension of studies, academic exchange programs or who could not select and register for the elective subjects on time due to any other justifiable circumstances, shall submit a reasoned written application to the dean of the faculty, where they study, asking to register them for the selected selective subject. The Faculty's dean shall examine the application not later than in 5 days after its receipt and shall allow or not allow to register the student for the elective subject taking into account the possibilities of the study program of that subject. If there are no possibilities to register the student for the selected elective subject, the Faculty's dean shall coordinate the choice with the student and register the student for some other elective subject following the procedure described in the clause 141 herein. The decision of the Faculty's dean shall be formalized by decree. The student shall be notified hereof immediately by electronic means.
140. If the students do not choose and register for the studies of elective subjects on time without any justifiable reason, the elective subjects shall be chosen and registered in the database of elective subjects at the discretion of the dean of the Faculty, where the student studies, before the deadlines for submission of the students' lists to the Center of Studies and units conducting the studies.
141. The Faculty's dean is entitled (provided it is coordinated with the student) to correct the student's choice during the period from May 10 until May 15, and in the first school year from September 15 until September 20 in the cases when it is necessary for smooth organization of the study process (when the student selects too many credits/subjects, when there is no possibility to teach certain elective subject, etc.).
142. The list of the first-year students, who have selected and registered for the elective subjects of the first course's program, formed according to the data of the database of elective subjects and approved by appropriate Faculty's dean shall be submitted to the Center of Studies and the units conducting the studies until September 20 of the current year.
143. The list of the students, who have selected and registered for the elective subjects of the next academic year (higher course of studies), formed according to the data of the database of elective subjects and approved by appropriate Faculty's dean shall be submitted to the Center of Studies and the departments/clinics/institutes until May 15 of the particular year.
144. In the case defined in the clause 139 herein, the Faculty's dean, who has made decision to register the student for the elective subject of his/her choice, shall pass this information immediately to the Center of Studies and the units conducting the studies. The employee assigned by the Faculty's dean shall make certain changes in the database of elective subjects following the dean's instruction.
145. After the deadlines specified in the clauses 142 and 143 herein the choice of elective subjects may be changed only because of important reasons having the permit of the Faculty's dean; the changes have to be coordinated beforehand with the University's units teaching the subjects. The maximal number of students in the study programs of elective subjects cannot be exceeded. It is not allowed to change the elective subject after its studies have started. The employee assigned by the Faculty's dean shall make certain changes in the database of elective subjects following the dean's instruction. The approved payment fund of the unit conducting the studies is not changed in this case.
146. Following the clause 345 herein, the student is entitled to study the elective subject in another recognized higher education institution. In such a case the student shall submit the following to the Faculty's dean not later than 10 work days before the registration deadlines specified herein:

- 146.1. application to allow studying the elective subject in another higher education institution;
 - 146.2. program of the planned elective subject;
 - 146.3. consent of the other recognized higher education institution to accept the student for elective subject.
147. The permit of the Faculty's dean is granted taking into account the compliance of the elective subject with the study program, studying conditions, time and other factors. The subject's studies in another higher education institution cannot obstruct the studies at the University. The Faculty's dean shall decide whether to allow the student to study the elective subject in another higher education institution not later than in 3 days after receipt of the student's application. The decision of the Faculty's dean shall be formalized by the decree. The student shall be notified about the issued decree by registered mail and electronically without delay. The student, who was not allow to study the elective subject in another higher education institution, has to choose among the elective subjects offered at University, following the terms and conditions stipulated herein.
148. The inclusion procedure of the elective subjects into the study program is described in the regulation of quality assurance of the University's activity.

The Faculty's dean shall pass the decree to extend the period of academic leave temporary for the period from the warning's dispatch until the submission of the student's application or the Rector's order to expel the student. If the student does not submit an application within the additionally set period, s/he shall be expelled following the Rector's order.

214. The student is entitled to repeat the subjects, where s/he had academic failures, and to complete them during the academic leave. The fee for the repeated studies is stipulated in the tenth section of the chapter IX of this Regulation.

CHAPTER IX EVALUATION OF ACHIEVEMENTS OF STUDENTS AND LISTENERS

215. The evaluation procedure of students and listeners is applied for the study programs of all the cycles and forms at the University as far as it does not contradict to the provisions of the University's Regulation of Residency Studies and Regulation of Doctoral Studies.
216. When the evaluation of the students and listeners is planned, organized and carried out, the following principles shall be followed:
- 216.1. validity (the evaluation is linked to the planned studying results of the study program (subject, module or cycle));
 - 216.2. reliability (the information received during evaluation and the evaluation results have to be objective and independent from evaluator);
 - 216.3. clarity (the evaluation system has to be informative, comprehensive for evaluators and evaluatees);
 - 216.4. usefulness (the carried out evaluation has to help the evaluatees to endeavor at the program's goals and planned study results);
 - 216.5. impartiality (the used evaluation methods must be equally suitable for all the evaluatees);
 - 216.6. publicity (the evaluation is based on public criteria, while the results of particular evaluation and explanation are available to the evaluatees).
217. The procedures of graduation works and/or final exams of individual study programs may be determined by separate documents prepared by the faculty responsible for the study program or the committee of the study program. In such a case the procedures cannot contradict to the legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania, and the provisions of this Regulation shall be applied as much as they are not replaced by the provisions of the aforementioned procedures.

SECTION ONE EVALUATION TYPES AND METHODS OF ACHIEVEMENTS OF STUDENTS AND LISTENERS

218. The diagnostic, forming and summarizing evaluation of students and listeners are applied at University.
219. The diagnostic evaluation is applied in order:
- 219.1. to check the minimal necessary preparation of the students or listeners for the

- classes; if positive results of such testing serve as a precondition for the participation of the student or listener in the class, the students or listeners have to be introduced to the testing procedure together with other study procedures of the subject/module/residency cycle in the beginning of the subject/module/residency cycle;
- 219.2. to determine the initial level of knowledge and/or skills of the students or listeners for the purpose of further evaluation of the study process;
- 219.3. to help the lecturers to select study methods and/or to adjust the content of studies by creating the conditions for the students and listeners to achieve the planned study results of the subject/module/residency cycle more effectively.
220. The forming evaluation is applied during the studies of the subject/module/residency cycle in order to assess critically and to correct the learning of the students or listeners. In order to assess general competences in the part of the study program (or in the study programs), where the practical and social skills are important (solving of problems in the studies of problem-based learning, practices, residency programs, etc.), the forming evaluation is carried out by the feedback method of majority of sources (evaluation of the lecturer-group-person, evaluation by 360 degrees, and other methods);
221. The summarizing evaluation is used to assess the achievements of the student or listener in the studies of subject/module/residency cycle. The cumulative grade is a part of the summarizing evaluation.
222. The lecturers teaching the subject/module/residency cycle plan the evaluation methods of the students and listeners, the prepared evaluation strategy of the subject/module/residency cycle is approved by the committee of the study program. The evaluation strategy presented in the description of the subject/module/residency cycle has to contain the forms, terms, criteria and percentage of each evaluation in general evaluation (if applicable).
223. The evaluation methods of the achievements of the students and listeners have to correspond to the planned studying results defined in the program of the subject/module/residency cycle and be in harmony with the content and methods of the subject/module/residency cycle.
224. When the lecturers are selecting evaluation methods, the educational competence center of the University's lecturers may provide methodical assistance.
225. The system of cumulative evaluation is applied for the study programs of the first and second cycles and the integrated studies, except for the study programs, where the problem-based method is applied.
226. When the cumulative evaluation is applied, its components are used to evaluate certain studying results provided in the program of the subject/module. Different studying results have to be evaluated by different components of the cumulative evaluation.
227. The cumulative evaluation is applied following these principles:
- 227.1. a cumulative share has to make up at least 50 percent of the final grade of a credit test/examination;
- 227.2. a cumulative share is calculated in a 10-score grading system by adding all grades from 0 to 10 inclusively, and by multiplying the total amount by a coefficient corresponding to a cumulative share expressed in percentage;
- 227.3. If a student has not attended a certain evaluation of the cumulative part due to justifiable reasons, he/she shall be provided an opportunity to perform skipped evaluation of that part.
- 227.4. In case of no justifiable reasons were presented by the student, the skipped component of cumulative evaluation can be performed only single time before the deadline for recording the results to electronic register. In such a case, following the clause 227.6, a grade is calculated as an average of grades in the first evaluation (equal - to 0) and the second evaluation and reordered in the electronic register.

- 227.5. In case student participated in the evaluation but did not pass it, failed component of cumulative evaluation can be performed only single time before the deadline for recording the results to electronic register. Following the clause 227.2, a grade is calculated as an average of grades in the first evaluation and the second evaluation and reordered in the electronic register.
- 227.6. A credit test, when used for evaluation of the cumulative part, is considered passed and “Pass” ticked in the electronic register when, following the provisions in the clause 227, a minimum grade stated in the subject/module description has been accumulated and reordered in the electronic register. “Pass”
- 227.6.1. If the minimum grade stated in the subject/module description has not been accumulated and electronic register indicates record “Not passed” in the subject where credit test is used as an evaluation grade, student may retake that part during the week of finalisation of academic debts. If a credit test is not passed till the indicated deadline, student shall submit a motivated request to extend the deadline in the LSMUSIS. A permission is formalised by the rector’s order following the mediation from the department responsible for the module and submission by the dean of the faculty. Retake is performed following the provisions of section nine in the chapter IX.
- 227.7. A cumulative part of the exam is finished by calculation of evaluation of cumulative part according to the requirements established by the department responsible for the module and reordering the grade in the electronic register (for those enrolled before 2017 – in the printed credit book) making the record „Completed“.
- 227.8. Exam part depending to the final verification shall not make more than 50% from the total score of the credit test or final exam. Final verification is considered as passed when it has been evaluated at least by the minimal positive grade (five);
- 227.9. If student performed the final verification but did not pass it or left the evaluation process or refused to perform the final evaluation, following the clause 262, the score of final verification shall not be added to the final grade and only grade of the cumulative part is reordered as final grade for subject of module.
228. The unit teaching the subject/module/residency cycle has to prepare, publish and introduce the students or listeners to the evaluation criteria, program of the cumulative and final evaluation or examination of the subject/module, its requirements and composition of the exam’s grade before the studies of the subject/module/residency cycle. The program cannot be changed during the entire period of studies of the subject/module/residency cycle.

SECTION TWO

EVALUATION FORMS OF ACHIEVEMENTS OF STUDENTS AND LISTENERS

229. In the course of studies of subject/module/residency cycle, forms of evaluation are a colloquy, defending of practical assignments, a control work, a course paper, a presentation of case history, etc., from which the cumulative grade is formed, and the entry “completed” is recorded in the student’s e-credit book (standard printed credit book for those enrolled before 2017) and examination register.
230. Upon completion of studies of subject/module/residency cycle, the forms of evaluation are the following: a credit test (for the ones, who have entered before 2010), an examination, and an independent work (project) of the student. The forms and contents of such evaluations shall be planned by a unit that prepares the study program of the subject/module/residency cycle and conducts the studies.

231. The unit conducting the studies shall determine the evaluation form, terms and criteria of the subject/module/residency cycle and introduce the students and listeners to them in the beginning of the subject/module/residency cycle.

SECTION THREE

EVALUATION CONTENT OF ACHIEVEMENTS OF STUDENTS AND LISTENERS

232. The evaluation content of the subject/module/residency cycle is provided by the unit that prepares the study program of the subject/module/residency cycle and conducts the studies. If the subject/module/residency cycle is implemented by more than one unit conducting the studies, each of them shall prepare the evaluation content of appropriate part of the subject/module/residency cycle and the unit in charge of conducting the studies of the subject/module/residency cycle shall make general evaluation content of the subject/module/residency cycle.
233. The evaluation content has to correspond to the planned studying results of the subject/module/residency cycle and the content of studies of the subject/module/residency cycle.
234. The evaluation content of the subject/module/residency cycle shall be approved by the unit in charge by changing the description of the subject/module following the procedure defined in University's acts and procedures.
235. The changes in the evaluation content are not allowed when the students or listeners of certain year start the studies of the subject/module/residency cycle. If the changes of evaluation content are made during the academic year, these changes shall be approved and come into effect with regard to the next academic year.
236. The lecturers teaching the subject shall select the particular evaluation tasks corresponding to the evaluation content following the procedure determined by the University's unit responsible for the studies of the subject/module/residency cycle.
237. The evaluatees cannot be familiar with the evaluation tasks before the evaluation of achievements of students and listeners. The lecturers, who prepare the evaluation tasks and carry out the evaluation, shall be responsible for the confidentiality of evaluation tasks.
238. In order to introduce the students and listeners to the evaluation procedure and to create the conditions for self-checking before the evaluation, similar tasks may be presented for them, provided these tasks are not included into evaluation.

SECTION FOUR

EVALUATION TERMS AND TIMETABLES OF ACHIEVEMENTS OF STUDENTS AND LISTENERS

239. The terms and volumes of the diagnostic and forming evaluations are determined by the unit conducting the studies of the subject/module and this unit shall inform the students and listeners hereof in the beginning of the subject/module.
240. The dates of intermediate summarizing evaluations are determined in the detailed timetables of the subject/module and published before the beginning of certain subject/module.
241. The dates of final exam of the subjects/modules shall be determined and published in general timetable of the studies.
242. In presence of objective reasons, which do not allow carrying out the evaluation on the set time, the new evaluation date is planned taking into account the timetables of studies of other subjects/modules and the requirements of this Regulation for preparation terms for the evaluation. The changed evaluation dates shall be published in certain timetables of studies at least 5 work days before the new evaluation date when earlier evaluation date is determined and not later than 5 work days from the old evaluation date when later evaluation date is determined.

243. The students and listeners participate in the evaluation procedures at the time set for certain group(s) of students. The student or listener may come on other time only in the following cases:
- 243.1. when the student studies according to the individual timetable of studies approved following this Regulation;
 - 243.2. in case of important reasons and if the individual evaluation time has been coordinated in written in advance with the unit conducting the studies responsible for evaluation and if the permit of the Faculty's dean has been received;
 - 243.3. if the student cannot participate in the evaluation procedures on the set time because of unforeseen reasons. In such a case the student or the listener has to inform the responsible unit conducting the studies about the absence circumstances not later than the evaluation is registered according to this Regulation, and to submit the documents confirming the reasons of absence. The time is coordinated with the student or listener for evaluation after the disappearance of the circumstances, which caused the student's disability to participate in the evaluation. It is approved by the decision of the Faculty's dean or his/her authorized person.
244. If the student or the listener does not participate in the evaluation (credit test/ exam/ independent student work (project)), in absence of any of the circumstances listed in the clause 243 herein, it is considered that the student or listener received negative grade (minimally possible). The negative evaluation results are entered into the register and study information system.
- 244.1. If the student was not allowed to the exam or certain part of the exam – final evaluation due to not completed subject (module) program, the first column of the electronic register shall be left empty and “Academic debt” shall be ticked in the same record. After student completes the subject (module) program during the week of finalisation of academic debts following other provisions of this Regulation, the final grade is reordered in the first column of electronic register and tick “Academic debt” cleared.
245. The repeated evaluation (credit test/ exam/ independent student work (project)) in case of negative evaluation results or absence in evaluation without having justifiable circumstances shall be conducted during the week given for completion of the semester's academic failures. If the academic failure is not completed until the end of the semester, the academic failures shall be completed following the procedure defined in the section IX of the chapter IX of this Regulation.

SECTION FIVE ORDER AND ORGANIZATION OF THE PROCEDURE OF SUMMARIZING EVALUATION

246. This section defines the examination procedure. The provisions of this section are all the procedures of summarizing applied for other evaluation forms as much as they suit according to the procedure's character. All the procedures of summarizing evaluation are applicable for the clauses 247 - 253 herein.

247. The students and listeners, who have implemented certain part of the study program and who have a right to participate in the evaluation, shall participate in the summarizing evaluation. If the students and listeners are not entitled to participate in evaluation because of the part of study program not implemented within the set terms, the unit conducting the studies responsible for the subject/module shall decide on the implementation of lacking part and participation in the evaluation.
248. The summarizing evaluation is organized in the following order:
- 248.1. the evaluation is executed in the place(s) selected and announced in advance at the time indicated in the timetable;
 - 248.2. the evaluation premises have to be suitable for the implementation of evaluation tasks and to be of the size sufficient for the planned number of evaluatees;
 - 248.3. the University shall provide the students or listeners with the necessary tools;
 - 248.4. the surveillance and video recording equipment has to be installed in the evaluation premises. In such a case the personal data protection is secured following the laws and the premises have to be marked by appropriate information signs or notices;
 - 248.5. the codes are awarded to the students or listeners for the written tasks (the works are encoded) so that the persons, who evaluate the written work, would not be able to identify the person, who has written that work. The personal identity is related to the work (the work is decoded) only after the work's evaluation;
 - 248.6. the audio recording equipment may be used for the oral evaluation tasks. Such a record may be used when the appeals are considered. The records shall be stored for one year after the evaluation.
 - 248.7. the evaluation supervision shall be organized by the responsible unit(s) conducting the studies. The persons supervising the evaluation have to put sufficient efforts to control the examination procedure and not to prevent the evaluation participants from execution of evaluation tasks without having an important reason;
 - 248.8. the evaluator shall register the students and listeners for evaluation in the beginning of evaluation. The students and listeners are identified using the student's certificate, student's card or other personal identity document with a photo;
 - 248.9. the student or listener may use only the information sources and tools announced publicly and in advance during the evaluation. It is forbidden to use other information sources and tools than specified in this clause;
 - 248.10. the University may use the permissible special connection-blocking devices during the evaluations;
 - 248.11. the evaluation tasks shall be performed individually and independently, unless indicated otherwise directly;
 - 248.12. the staff of the unit conducting the studies and persons delegated by the University's administration or council of Student Representative Office may participate in the evaluation and observe its course and procedures. The same person cannot be supervisor, evaluator or the evaluatee at the same time;
 - 248.13. some additional rules may be set for evaluation; in such a case they have to be announced publicly before the evaluation and the students and listeners have to be introduced to them in advance;
 - 248.14. in the case when circumstance having a potential impact on evaluation process arise, clause 278 of this Regulation shall be apply.
249. The evaluators and/or other persons assigned by the unit conducting the studies and responsible for evaluation shall secure the order during the evaluation, and they shall be assisted by the observers of evaluation.
250. If the evaluator or observer participating in the evaluation suspects that the student

- or the listener uses or has impermissible sources or tools, the student or listener has to help to diminish suspicions. The disagreement of the student or the listener to cooperate is regarded as the proof of his/her academic dishonesty and violation of evaluation procedure.
251. The evaluatees, who violate the evaluation procedure, lose the right to stay in the evaluation, while the tasks they were implementing shall not be evaluated.
 252. The unit conducting the studies responsible for evaluation shall be responsible for the violation of evaluation procedure and shall inform in written the Faculty's dean stating the evaluation circumstances, the person, who violated the evaluation procedure and character of violation. If the evaluates use, tried to use or had the impermissible tools (or sources), these tools (or sources) shall be taken (if possible) and submitted to the Faculty's dean together with the information on the violation of evaluation procedure. The Faculty's dean shall store the aforementioned tools (or sources) until the decision about the punishment to the student or the listener is made following the procedure described in this Regulation. If the evaluatee, who does not agree with the punishment, submits an appeal to the Commission of dispute settlement, the aforementioned tools (or sources) shall be stored by the Faculty's dean until the dispute is solved in the Commission of dispute settlement. If the decision made by the Commission of dispute settlement is appealed to the Senate, the Faculty's dean shall store the tools (sources) until the dispute is solved in the Senate.
 253. The punishments specified in the chapter XIV herein shall be imposed to the evaluatee, who violates the evaluation procedure described in this chapter, depending on the character of violation.
 254. The unit conducting the studies that organizes the evaluation of works has to secure the reliability of the evaluation by assigning the sufficient number of competent evaluators.
 255. The results of evaluations shall be announced following the terms and conditions of the clause 265 herein.
 256. When the evaluation results are announced, the student or the listener is entitled to get familiar with the detailed evaluation of his/her work and get explanations about the work's defects or made mistakes.
 257. The explanation of the students' or listeners' evaluation shall be organized not later than in 1 work day after the announcement day of the evaluation results.
 258. The persons indicated in the section VI of the chapter VII of this Regulation shall be responsible for correctness of evaluation data and their presentation to the University's LSMUSIS register's database.

SECTION SIX EVALUATION PROCEDURE OF ACHIEVEMENTS OF THE STUDENTS AND LISTENERS

259. The exams may be conducted in written or orally, with regard to the particularity of the subject/module. The evaluation conducted by computer when the answers are given using the computer shall be equal to the written examination. The examination form is indicated in the subject's/module's description.
260. The exam and the independent work (project) of the student or listener is evaluated by grade. The requirements, evaluation criteria and the composition of the grade are indicated by the unit conducting the studies, which has to notify the students and the listeners hereof in the beginning of the subject/module. The evaluation form of the achievements of students and listeners cannot be changed during the entire subject/module.
261. The student's or listener's achievements are evaluated in a 10-score grading system; the smallest positive grade is 5. The mathematical rounding rules are applied to calculate evaluation percentage by rounding down the tenth and hundredth parts of the grades. The evaluations are entered in a student's e-credit book (traditional printed credit book for those enrolled before 2017) and in the LSMUSIS electronic examination register by recording the grade and its meaning.

262. The meanings of the studying results and their relation to the level of achievements are the following:

Grade	Meaning	It is written when the percentage of knowledge, skills and capabilities provided in the study program are achieved	Description
10 (ten)	Excellent	95-100 %	Excellent, exceptional knowledge and skills
9 (nine)	Very good	85-94 %	Solid, good knowledge and skills
8 (eight)	Good	75-84 %	Better than average knowledge and skills
7 (seven)	Moderate	65-74 %	Average knowledge and skills
6 (six)	Satisfactory	55-64 %	Worse than average knowledge and skills (capabilities)
5 (five)	Weak	50-54 %	The knowledge and skills (capabilities) satisfy minimal requirements
4 (four)	Insufficient	40-49 %	The minimal requirements are not satisfied
3 (three)	Unsatisfactory	30-39 %
2 (two)	Bad	20-29 %
1 (one)	Not evaluated	Less than 20 %

263. The assessment of the examination or other evaluation form of the students' achievements shall be entered into the database of LSMUSIS electronic register, following the procedure of handling, usage and administration of LSMUSIS data, in 5 work days after the assessment date of the examination or other evaluation form of the students' achievements. Achievements of the cumulative part shall be reordered in 5 work days after the assessment date of the evaluation but not later than one day before the evaluation of the next part of the same module. If the student took the exam/credit test/ independent work (project) of the student according to the timetable and did not pass it, the lecturer of that subject has to fill the column of the first exam and enter the negative evaluation in the LSMUSIS electronic register. If the student did not take an exam, credit test or independent work (project) without any justifiable reason or refused to take part in it/left without giving

- completed the examination procedure, grade one (1) is entered into the box of certain evaluation in the register. If student was not allowed to perform the evaluation due to not completed program of the subject or module clause 244.1 of this Regulation shall apply. The evaluation and date shall be also entered in the students' e-credit book (traditional credit book for those enrolled before the 2017).
264. The evaluations of the exam/ independent work (project) of the listeners shall be recorded in the register, which form is determined by the Faculty's dean. The name of the subject/module, number of credits, evaluation (grade) have to be entered into the register and it has to be signed by the evaluating lecturer or the unit's manager.
- 264.1. The mean of evaluations of exams/ independent work (project) of the students of certain semester or academic year is calculated by adding the evaluations provided in the semester's syllabus and by dividing their sum from the number of evaluations planned for the semester (year) in the syllabus.
- 264.2. If the mean of evaluations is calculated for the period longer than one semester, first of all the arithmetic mean of evaluations of each semester (year) of the student is calculated and then total mean of the student's study program in certain academic study period is derived.
- 264.3. If the same exam/ independent work (project) of the student was evaluated several times (it was retaken or re-defended due to negative grade), the arithmetic mean of all the evaluations of that independent work (project) used to calculate the mean of evaluations of certain semester or academic year should be calculated.
- 264.4. The result shall be rounded down to the hundredths parts of the grade in all the calculations.
- 264.5. The course's mean is determined by summing up the means of evaluations of all the students of that course and by dividing the sum from the number of students in the course, which evaluation means are calculated.
265. The structure of examination or other evaluation form of the students' /listeners' achievements is announced publicly on the University's intranet not later than in 5 work days after certain evaluation.
266. The lecturer has to present detailed explanation of the evaluation of the students or listeners following their request.
267. If the student or listener does not agree with the evaluation, s/he may appeal following the clauses 281 - 298 herein.
268. The right to examine is held by a professor, an associate professor and a lecturer. An assistant professor is also entitled to examine, if instructed so by the head of a unit conducting the studies. Participation in an examination may be taken by the staff of the unit conducting the studies, the Rector, Vice-Rectors, chancellors, Dean of the Faculty and representatives delegated by the Student Representative Office. Other persons may take participation in an examination only by permission of the Rector, Vice-Rector or Dean of the Faculty.
269. The student is entitled to take final testing of the examination / examination of the module when the entry "completed" is recorded in the student's e-credit book (traditional printed for those enrolled before 2017) and LSMUSIS electronic examination register.
270. The student may decide not to take the final testing, if in the course of studies s/he has managed to accumulate such cumulative share of the examination evaluation that is sufficient for being awarded a passing score (grade).
271. If a student fails in the final testing or refuses to take it, but in the course of studies s/he has accumulated such cumulative share of the examination evaluation that is sufficient for being awarded a passing grade, the grade of the cumulative share of the examination evaluation shall be entered to him/her as the final grade.

272. If the final testing consists of several assignments that are evaluated individually, the final evaluation grade shall be calculated by adding the grades from 1 to 10 received in every individual assignment, and the total amount shall be multiplied by a coefficient corresponding to the final testing result expressed in percentage.
273. For the purpose of getting prepared for the final testing (subjects in cycles), 2 work days shall be given, and if the cycle's duration is equal or less than 3 credits – 1 work day from the time covered by the subject/module. The student is not exempted from attendance in the non-cyclic classes.
274. The exams and credit tests passed by the student earlier or in another study program may be included if the studying results achieved in that subject/module do not differ essentially. In such a case it should be noted in the register and in the student's e-credit book (traditional printed for those enrolled before 2017), where and what subject/module was studied and what grade was awarded. The evaluation of the exam or credit test shall be entered into the student's standard credit book by the Faculty's dean.
275. The earlier studies subjects are recorded according to the chapter XII of this Regulation.

SECTION SEVEN ABSENCE OF THE STUDENT OR LISTENER IN THE EVALUATION

276. The students or listeners participate in the exam or in the credit test on the time indicated in the timetable.
277. If the student cannot come to the exam or other evaluation of the subject/module because of the justifiable circumstance and has the supporting documents, the manager of the unit conducting the studies shall appoint new examination time following the clause 303.3 of this Regulation and the student's application. When the semester ends, the decision regarding extension terms shall be made following the procedure described in the clauses 303.6 - 303.8 herein.
278. In case of the circumstances, which may potentially affect the evaluation process and results, the student shall immediately notify hereof the lecturer in charge of examination before the exam/ examination of the cumulative grade (or evaluation of any other component) begins. The lecturer shall inform the supervisor of the unit conducting the studies (module) about these circumstances. Any explanations submitted after the evaluation shall not be considered as reasonable.
279. When the student is absent from the classes and/or evaluation because of the disease or other justifiable circumstances, s/he has to deliver the justifying documents to the Faculty's dean in 10 work days after the absence period.
280. The justification procedures of absence in the evaluation due to justifiable circumstances and the list of justifiable circumstances shall be provided in the University's procedure of evaluation and approval of justifiable circumstances.

SECTION EIGHT APPEALS REGARDING EVALUATION OF ACHIEVEMENTS OF THE STUDENTS OR LISTENERS

281. If the student or listener does not agree with the evaluation of the studying achievements and its explanation provided in the unit conducting the studies that was in charge of evaluation, or with the evaluation procedures, s/he is entitled to submit an appeal.

282. The appeals are allowed in the following cases:
 - 282.1. regarding the results of the credit test (or other intermediate evaluation);
 - 282.2. regarding the exam's results;
 - 282.3. regarding the evaluation procedures;
 - 282.4. regarding the evaluation results and procedures of the final exam or graduation work.
283. The student is entitled to appeal:
 - 283.1. in 1 work day after announcement of the results in the case specified in the clause 282.1 herein;
 - 283.2. in 2 work days after announcement of the results in the case specified in the clause 282.1 herein;
 - 283.3. in 1 work day after evaluation in the case specified in the clause 282.3 herein;
 - 283.4. in 1 work day after announcement of the results in the case specified in the clause 282.4 herein.
284. In the cases specified in the clauses 282.1, 282.2 and 282.3 herein the appeals shall be brought to the dean of the Faculty, where the student or listener studies, and in the case specified in the clause 282.4 the appeals shall be brought to the Rector.
285. The appeals shall be brought in written. There should be indicated the evaluation parts or procedures, regarding which the disagreement is expressed, and the motives of such disagreements. In the cases specified in the clauses 282.1, 282.2 and 282.3 herein, the appeal commission shall be formed and the examination terms of the appeal shall be determined following the decree of the Faculty's dean not later than in 3 work days after the receipt of the appeal. In any case the appeal has to be examined in 14 work days at the most after the appeal's submission.
286. In the case specified in the clause 282.4 herein the appeal commission shall be formed by the Rector's order in advance, but not later than 2 work days before the evaluation of final exam or graduation work. The appeal has to be examined not later than in 3 work days after the appeal's submission.
287. In the case specified in the clause 285 herein, the appeal commission shall be formed from 2 representatives of Student Representative Office, 5 representatives of administration and/or lecturers. The person, whose evaluation has been appealed, cannot be a member of the commission. The appeal commission shall act following the clauses 289 - 298 herein.
288. In the case specified in the clause 286 herein, the appeal commission shall be formed from 3 representatives of Student Representative Office and 6 representatives of administration and/or lecturers, unless the provisions of the final exam of certain study program state otherwise. The appeal commission shall act following the clauses 289 - 298 herein.
289. The appeal commission shall follow the Law of Science and Studies, this Regulation and other internal legal acts of the University in its activities.
290. The form of the appeal commission's activity is a meeting. The commission's meetings are legitimate if more than half of the commission's members take part in them. The commission's members shall elect the president among the members by the majority of votes. The decisions of the appeal commission shall be made by the voting majority, when more "for" votes are received than "against" votes.
291. The appeals are examined in oral procedure.
292. The appellant shall be invited to the meeting of the appeal commission. The appeal commission shall listen to the opinions of the evaluating lecturer and the appealing student. The person appointed by the Faculty's dean (in the cases specified in the clauses 282.1, 282.2 and 282.3 herein) or the Rector (in the case specified in the clause 282.4 herein) shall inform the student or the listener about the meeting not later than 1 work day before the scheduled meeting.

293. If the appellant does not come to the meeting without having justifiable reason, the appeal shall not be examined. If the appellant does not come and notifies the appeal commission immediately about the justifiable reason and submits the supporting documents, the new term of appeal shall be set.
294. First of all the appeal commission considers the validity of the appeal in its meeting. If it is recognized that the appeal is groundless, it shall not be examined and the previous evaluation stays valid. If the appeal commission decides that the appeal is groundless, the appellant shall be notified about such a decision by e-mail not later than in 2 work days after the decision has been made.
295. When the appeals indicated in the clauses 282.1 and 282.2 herein and brought regarding the written evaluation results are examined, the appeal commission evaluates only the written work. If the appellant brings an appeal regarding evaluation of oral examination or regarding the evaluation procedures specified in the clause 282.3 herein, the appeal commission may allow the student or the listener to re-take the exam or credit test or to re-defend the graduation work if it examines the claim and determines the ground for the appeal's satisfaction. If the appellant was answering orally and there is his/her preparation sheet or the audio record was made during the examination, when the appeal commission assesses whether there is a ground to satisfy the student's appeal, shall take these items into account. If the student or listener, who has been duly notified about the date of the appeal commission's date, does not come to the meeting without having any justifiable reason, the appeal for oral evaluation's results shall be left unexamined. The appellant shall be notified hereof by registered mail not later than in 2 work days after such decision has been made. In all the cases the non-arrival of the person, who was invited to the meeting of the appeal commission, shall not prevent the appeal commission from the appeal's examination and making a decision.
296. The appeal commission shall make decisions by common agreement. The appeal commission may make the following decisions:
 - 296.1. not to satisfy the appeal and to leave the previous evaluation;
 - 296.2. to satisfy the appeal and to change the evaluation (when the appeals for written examinations specified in the clauses 282.1, 282.2 are examined);
 - 296.3. to satisfy the appeal and to allow repeating the examination, not considering the period until the new examination to be the period of failures, and without including the appealed evaluation into the total number of evaluations (when the appeals for oral examination specified in the clauses 282.1 and 282.2 and the appeals specified in the clause 282.3 are examined);
 - 296.4. to satisfy the appeal and to allow re-taking the final exam or re-defending the graduation work (when the appeals brought according to the clause 282.4 are examined).
297. The decision of the appeal commission shall be submitted to the appellant by registered mail and electronically not later than in 2 work days after the decision has been made. 298.
298. The decisions of the appeal commission regarding the procedural violations of decision-making may be appealed to the Commission of Dispute Settlement.

SECTION NINE
ACADEMIC FAILURES AND THEIR COMPLETION

299. The student, who has not passed the exam, independent work (project), credit test, has a right to repeat this examination twice free of charge.
300. If the student has missed the examination because of the justifiable circumstances and has informed the unit conducting the studies following the clause 279 herein, s/he is entitled to be examined as specified in the clauses 303.3 - 303.7. In such a case it is considered that the student is examined for the first time; the grade of the exam or other evaluation form is entered into the first column of the register.
301. If the student has missed the examination (credit test, exam, independent work (project)) without any justifiable reason, the grade “one” is entered into the first column of the register; when the student is examined as specified in the clauses 303.3 - 303.7, the evaluation is entered into the second column.
302. If the student receives 50 percent and more of the determined part of the cumulative share of the exam and took but did not pass the final examination, s/he has a right to apply to the Faculty’s dean (through mediation of the manager of the unit teaching the subject/module) asking to retake an exam once before the end of the current semester (fall semester – until January 31, spring semester – until June 30). This exclude cases discussed in the clause 271 of this Regulation. In the case final evaluation is passed on the second trial, final grade is reordered in the second column of the electronic register.
303. Completion procedure of academic failures is the following:
- 303.1. One week in the end of the current semester is given to complete the academic failures;
- 303.2. The last week of August is given to complete the academic failures from all academic year. If the student does not complete the academic failures during this period, s/he is not registered for the studies in the higher year, except when the academic failures are not completed because of the justifiable circumstances;
- 303.3. The head of unit conducting the studies may extend the examination term until the end of the semester, i.e. until January 31 in fall semester and until June 30 in the spring semester;
- 303.4. The credit tests and exams are taken/retaken only during the week given for completion of the academic failures indicated in the calendar timetable. The Faculty’s dean has to submit the timetable of completion of the academic failures at least 2 months before the beginning of the week given for completion of academic failures, provided the timetable is coordinated with units conducting the studies, to the Center of Studies, and the Center announces the timetable on the University’s website, column of academic information. The timetable of week given to complete academic failures of the academic year shall be submitted and announced together with the timetable of the week given to complete the academic failures of the spring semester;
- 303.5. The units conducting the studies have to create the conditions for the students, who missed the practical assignments because of disease or any justifiable reason, and to execute them before the beginning of the week given for completion of the academic failures;
- 303.6. Following the student’s reasoned request, the Faculty’s dean can extend the term for completion of the academic failures until February 10 if the student has not been examined until January 31 in the fall semester;
- 303.7. If the student does not complete the academic failures before the deadlines specified in the clauses 303.3. and 306.4 and presents motivates request (disease, other good reasons) in LSMUSIS, the extension of the completion term of the academic failures until August 31 may apply, following the dean's recommendation. These academic failures are completed within the completion week of the academic failures of the academic year. For final year students, deadline to complete academic failures may be extended till the deadline which is set for submission of graduation works to the qualification committee.

- 303.8. If the student could not complete the academic failures before the deadlines specified in the clauses 303.3, 303.6 and 303.7 and submitted request in LSMUSIS, the Rector's office may consider the extension of the completion term of the academic failures until June 30, following the dean's recommendation;
- 303.9. If the rector's office agrees to extend certain term for completion of academic failures, the decision shall be formalized by the Rector's order. The manager of the Center of Studies shall issue the permit for the student to take a credit test, exam of the subject/module or to carry out the independent work (project). The permission is formalised in the LSMUSIS after appropriate order is signed by the rector. The head of the Study Centre or officer empowered by him/her activate permission which can be printed by student single time only. The unit conducting the studies shall record the evaluation date, grade of the credit test and/or exam and/or independent work (project) of the student into the permit's form and the original document shall be submitted to the Faculty dean's office and the register is completed by the officer at the dean's office;
- 303.10. The student, who has academic failures after the deadlines specified in the clauses 303.3 and 303.6 herein, shall be considered failed student.
- 303.11. If the student does not complete the academic failures before the deadlines specified in the clauses 303.7 and 303.8 and submits requests in LSMUSIS, s/he is left to repeat the studies following the recommendation of the Faculty's dean. The decision to leave the student to repeat the studies shall be executed in the Rector's order indicating the subjects/modules, which have to be repeated.

SECTION TEN REPETITION OF STUDIES

304. The studies are repeated in the following cases:
 - 304.1. the student has failed the exam of the subject/module for three times;
 - 304.2. the failure is not completed during repeated studies;
305. A student can study the following repeatedly:
 - 305.1. one or several subjects/modules of the same year;
 - 305.2. the whole program of one semester – when any subject/model of that semester has not been evaluated by passing grade;
 - 305.3. the whole program of one year of studies – when any subject/model of the study program of that year of studies has not been evaluated by passing grade.
306. When the student repeats one or several subjects, s/he cannot study other subjects at the same time, provided their studies need prerequisites of the repeated subjects.
307. The repeated studies are subject to tuition fees, except in the cases when documents justifying reasonable circumstances of the non-fulfillment of the study program are available.
308. The student starts to study repeatedly having paid the fee determined by the Council and having received the Faculty's dean's permit; the volume to be repeated is indicated.
 - 308¹. The student who shall repeat the subject or module shall submit the request to repeat the subject or module in LSMUSIS addressed to the dean not later than 10 days before the first day of semester in which that subject or module is taught. Faculty dean shall draw the resolution on the request and state the date when repeating of module or subject shall start no later than in 5 days after the request is submitted. Following the deans resolution, the Study Centre enrolls student to appropriate group and issues appropriate written note to the student.

308². If student, whom permission to repeat the subject was issued, fails to submit the request for registration to the subject by the deadline indicated in the clause 308¹, a written warning note is issued and delivered to the student by registered post. Student is notified that failing to submit a request for repeating the subject or module in 30 days from the date when warning note is issued but not later than subject of module begins, provisions of the chapter IX section nine will be applied.

309. When only some subjects/modules are repeated, the manager of the unit conducting the studies may include the previously done works of that subject/module and intermediate tests following the recommendation from the teaching lecturer.
310. When the student repeats the studies, s/he is entitled to retake the failed exam twice.
311. The student can repeat the same semester or course not more than twice.

SECTION ELEVEN EVALUATION ETHICS

312. The principles of academic ethics shall be followed during the evaluation process of the students' achievements.
313. During the forming evaluation and when the feedback to the students or listeners is granted during the summarizing evaluation, the evaluators shall follow the principle of maximal benefit for the study process of the studying person. The evaluations of personal character, evaluations, which humiliate personal dignity or violate general ethical principles, are not allowed.
314. When the achievements of the students or listeners are evaluated during the summarizing evaluation, the evaluators shall follow the principle of maximal impartiality and principle of privacy (confidentiality) of the evaluated results, unless special provisions of results' announcement are provided by other legal acts.
315. The students and listeners, who take part in any form of the evaluation, shall perform the evaluated work according to the principles of academic honesty (independent work, non-plagiarizing, correct quoting, etc.).
316. No methods of impact on evaluators are allowed during the evaluation process (presents or other compensation, pressure, etc.).
317. The notices about violations of the evaluation ethics shall be submitted to the Faculty's dean. Such notices may be submitted by the evaluatees, evaluators, evaluation observers or other members of the academic community. The notice may be submitted to the Faculty's dean not later than in 1 work day after certain violation or learning about such violation of ethics.
318. The Faculty's dean shall form the commission for investigation of violations of evaluation ethics from 6 representatives of the administration and 3 representatives of Student Representative Office not later than in 2 work days after having been addressed.
319. The form of the commission's activity is meeting. The commission's meetings are legitimate if more than half of the commission's members are present. The commission's members shall elect the president among the members by the majority of - votes.

320. The violations of the evaluation ethics are investigated orally. If necessary, the Faculty's dean may decide to receive the written explanations of the interested persons, so that the violations of evaluation ethics could be investigated. If the Faculty's dean decides that it is necessary to receive the explanations of such interested persons, s/he shall inform the interested persons about such a decision and determine the term for submission of their written explanations. If the written explanations of the interested person(s) are not received, the commission is not prevented from investigation of the violation of evaluation ethics and making the decision.
321. The commission shall make decisions by common consent. When the commission investigates the possible violation of evaluation ethics, it shall make one of the following decisions:
- 321.1. to recognize that no ethical violation has taken place;
- 321.2. to recognize that the ethical violation of the evaluator has taken place and to inform the commission of employment and certification of lecturers and research workers of certain Faculty hereof;
- 321.3. to recognize that the ethical violation of the evaluatee has taken place and to suggest the Faculty's dean to annul the evaluation results and/or to apply the disciplinary punishments.
322. The commission has to make a decision not later than in 3 work days after the commission's formation.
323. The commission's decisions regarding procedural violations of decision-making may be appealed to the Commission of Dispute Settlement.
324. The determined violations of evaluation ethics shall be published in the University's newspaper and/or on the University's website without providing personal data of the interested persons.

SECTION TWELVE ACADEMIC HONESTY

325. Violations of academic honesty during evaluation are the following:
- 325.1. talking – it is communication with other participating persons with regard to the study program. It is forbidden to talk during the evaluations unless it was indicated otherwise publicly before the evaluation. In case of the first offence the student is warned by making certain remark in the evaluation protocol/examination page. If the student offends repeatedly, the punishment specified in the clause 390.4 herein shall be imposed to the student or the listener;
- 325.2. having and using of mobile phones, other electronic means or other impermissible information sources. Having mobile phones, other electronic means or other impermissible information sources covers the possibility to use directly or remotely, openly or secretly, certain means or sources for their direct purpose or otherwise, if such actions could lead to receiving or conveyance of information. If it is determined that the student or the listener has or uses the impermissible information sources, mobile phone or other electronic means, the punishment specified in the clause 390.4 herein shall be imposed on him/her;
- 325.3. copying from the other student or listener. The copying of the whole or part of the work from the other student or listener is considered to be an impermissible usage of the information sources. If it is determined that the student or listener has copied from another student or listener, the punishment specified in the clause 390.4 herein shall be

- imposed;
- 325.4. feigning other student or listener. If it is determined that another person participates or intends to participate in the evaluation in place of the student or listener, the punishment specified in the clause 390.4 herein shall be imposed. If the person, who intended to participate or participated in examination in place of the student or listener, studies at the University, the punishment specified in the clause 390.4 herein shall be imposed on him/her, as well.
326. in case of suspicion that the student or the listener was cheating, the dean of the Faculty, where that student or listener studies, shall form the commission following the clause 328, not later than in 3 work days after the evaluation.
327. The following are considered the cases of academic cheating while preparing the written works:
- 327.1. plagiarism – intellectual theft of various sorts (texts, visual aids), conscious appropriation of research data, simulation and falsification of the scientific work, and usage of the data in the scientific works (essays, papers, course works, projects, theses of scientific work, graduation works, etc.) without indicating the sources of knowledge. In case of the suspicion about the plagiarism, the Faculty's dean shall form the commission following the clause 328. All the graduation works must be checked regarding the plagiarism; other written works may be checked in case of suspicion of plagiarism;
- 327.2. duplication of the work – repeated usage of the scientific work or its part (repeated presentation for evaluation), when the written work had already been presented and defended in this or other educational institution in Lithuania or abroad, without making such references in the sources. The commission formed by the Faculty's dean following the clause 328 herein, shall decide about the work's duplication;
- 327.3. falsification of the research data. The data used in the scientific work have to be collected by the work's author or their publication source has to be indicated. The falsification of the research data is academic cheating and violation of the research ethics. The commission formed by the Faculty's dean following the clause 328 herein, shall decide about the falsification of the research data;
- 327.4. other cases not specified in the clause 327 herein, which are used to achieve better results by cheating. The commission formed by the Faculty's dean following the clause 328 herein, shall decide about the recognition of certain case as academic cheating.
328. The Faculty's dean shall form the commission to investigate the cases of academic cheating specified in the clauses 325 and 327 herein from 1/3 of the University's lecturers (one lecture has to be from the other unit conducting the studies than the unit where the written work was done), 1/3 representatives of the Faculty's administration and 1/3 students delegated by the Student Representative Office. The Commission shall assess not later than in 7 work days (in the case specified in the clause 325) or not later than in 4 work days (in the case specified in the clause 327) after the commission's formation whether the work contains the facts of academic cheating described in the clauses 325 and 327 herein and it shall submit its conclusions to the Faculty's dean. The Commission may use all the technical tools necessary to assess the fact and volume of certain academic cheating. If the fact of academic cheating is confirmed, the Faculty's dean shall submit the decision for the Rector's consideration regarding the punishment indicated in the clause 390.4.

CHAPTER X

PROCEDURE OF DETERMINATION AND COMPARISON OF STUDYING RESULTS

SECTION ONE

CALCULATION OF MEANS OF EVALUATION RESULTS AND FORMATION OF ROW OF THE BEST STUDENTS

329. The comparison period of the academic studies of the student admitted to the University:
- 329.1. the studying results of the students admitted in 2009 and later shall be compared to the studying results of certain study are and form of the same course where they are studying (hereinafter course) every year when the academic year is over;
- 329.2. The student's results after the completion of the module (subject) shall be evaluated by attributing them to certain level of achievements. The evaluations of the modules (subjects) shall be summarized and the level of studying achievements of the evaluated period shall be determined after the evaluation period set by the University, which cannot exceed one academic year;
- 329.3. Three levels of studying achievements of the modules (subjects) shall be distinguished: excellent, typical and threshold;
- 329.3.1. The student shall be attributed to the excellent level of achievements when: s/he knows the up-to-date sources, theories and principles of the subject (field) and is able to create and develop new ideas; s/he is able to apply knowledge and solve complex and atypical problems of the study field and related professional activity; s/he is able to collect, assess and interpret data independently and to make decisions on their ground; s/he is able to convey logically information, ideas, problems and solutions while communicating with the specialists of own and other study areas; s/he has studying capacities, which are necessary for further studies and independent learning;
- 329.3.2. The student shall be attributed to the typical level of achievements when: s/he knows the most significant theories and principles of the subject (field) and is able to substantiate the essential achievements of the study area; s/he is able to apply knowledge and solve standard problems of the study field and related professional activity; s/he is able to collect, assess and interpret independently the data of own study field, which are necessary to make decisions; s/he is able to convey usual information, ideas, problems and solutions of the study field; s/he has studying capacities, which are necessary for further studies and independent learning;
- 329.3.3. The student shall be attributed to the threshold level of achievements when: s/he knows the most significant theories and principles of the subject (field); s/he is able to apply knowledge and solve simple problems of own study field; s/he is able to participate in collection, assessment and interpretation of the data of own study field, which are necessary to make decisions; s/he is able to convey main information, ideas, and problems of the study field; s/he has capacities of independent learning.
330. 330. The student is considered to be academically successful if s/he does not have academic failures, has implemented all the requirements set for the study program for the evaluation period, and who has achieved excellent or typical level of

- achievements. The academic failure is considered to be the failed academic exam/test during the evaluation period that cannot exceed one academic year, as provided in the chapter IX of this regulation.
- 330.1. It is considered that the student has reached an excellent level of studying achievements in the evaluation period if the evaluations of at least four fifths of the modules (subjects) are on excellent level, and the others – not lower than on typical level;
 - 330.2. It is considered that the student has reached a typical level of studying achievements in the evaluation period if the evaluations of at least three fourths of the modules (subjects) are on typical or excellent level, and the others – on threshold level;
 - 330.3. It is considered that the student has reached a threshold level of studying achievements in the evaluation period if s/he has accounted for all the modules (subjects), but his/her studying achievements do not reach typical level;
 - 330.4. Rounding rules shall not apply when achievement level has to be set and connected to study results of defined study period.
331. The evaluation period shall be one academic year that starts on the 01st of September and ends on the 31st of August.
- 331.1. If the studying period of the module (subject) does not coincide with the evaluation period, the achievements of such module (subject) shall be included into the calculation of level of studying achievements of the evaluation period, during which they were evaluated;
 - 331.2. When the level of studying achievements of the evaluation period is determined, the volume of modules (subjects) in credits shall not be taken into consideration, except cases defined by clause 332.5.
332. Criteria to appoint levels of student achievements:
- 332.1. if the same exam/ independent work (project) of the student was evaluated several times (it was retaken or re-defended due to negative grade), the final evaluation shall be taken into account to determine the level of achievements.
 - 332.2. If several students have the same results, when the level of achievements is determined, the priority shall be given to the students, who have received all the evaluations from the first time;
 - 332.3. If the levels of achievements of the modules (subjects) of the students, who compete for vacated State-funded places, are the same, the priority shall be given to the students, whose total sum of evaluations of subjects (modules) in scores is higher.
 - 332.4. In case of few students are appointed the same level of academic achievement and they compete for state funded study place, the priority shall be given those students who get a higher sum of evaluations from the subjects or modules evaluated in level excellent. If there is no subjects evaluated at excellent level, the sum of next lower level apply.
 - 332.5. In case of few students are appointed the equal level of academic achievements in subjects or modules, and they compete for state funded study place, the priority shall be given those students who got a higher evaluation in subject or module having the largest number of credits;
 - 332.6. In case of few students are appointed the equal level of academic achievements in subjects or modules, and they compete for state funded study place, the priority shall be given those students who got a higher average in previous evaluation period;
 - 332.7. In case of equal averages (levels) in evaluation period, higher priority shall be given for students of higher rate during the enrolment to study program.
333. The studying achievements of the students to certain level shall be attributed by the Study Centre following the principles defined in the clauses 330-332 herein.

333.1. The ten-score grading system shall be related to the levels of studying achievements in the following way: excellent level of studying achievements – 9 and 10; typical level of studying achievements – 7 and 8; threshold level of studying achievements – 5 and 6 (see clause 262).

334. 334. When the student has academic failures because of disease, inability to work or other justifiable circumstances, the permanent commission formed by the Rector's order shall decide about the comparison of his/her results. The representative of the Student Representative Office has to belong to that commission. The commission is formed from the deans of faculties, 1 representative of the Center of Studies and 1 representative of students delegated by the Student Representative Office.

334.1. The students, who are on academic leave or who have suspended their studies temporarily, are not included into the row of the best students.

335. The row of the academically successful students is formed by listing the studying results in the decreasing order. The person authorized by the manager of the Center of Studies shall be responsible for formation and submission of the rows to the dean's offices and other institutions.

336. The row of the academically successful students is formed and the competition procedures for State-funded places are carried out in 10 work days after the deadlines set for completion of academic failures in this Regulation. The row of the academically successful students is recorded on the 1st of September of current year and signed by the Faculty's dean and manager of the Center of Studies, and stored in the office of the Study Centre until the end of studies of certain admission year and for one year after the completion of studies.

337. The State funding is left to the student, who is funded by the State during the studies of first cycle and integrated studies, after the evaluation period set by the University not exceeding one academic year, if the student satisfies the criteria of academic success set in the clause 330 herein. If the student does not satisfy these criteria, s/he loses the State funding, except for the case defined in the clause 338. The student, who loses the State funding, shall pay the tuition fee set by the higher educational school, while the vacated State-funded place shall be taken by the best students of the same study field, the same year and same study form, who are not funded by the State, but satisfies the criteria of academic success. If the number of vacated places is smaller than the number of qualifying students, the priority shall be given to the students, who have achieved more excellent achievement levels of the subjects (modules) in the evaluation period.

338. If there are no students, who are not funded by the State, in certain study field and year of the studies of first cycle and integrated studies, who would satisfy the criteria of academic success, the State funding will be left to the students funded by the State, who do not have academic failures, although their achievement level of the evaluation period was threshold.

338.1. If the number of the vacated State-funded places is smaller than the number of non-State funded students, who have not reached excellent level of achievements of the modules (subjects) during the evaluation period, the priority shall be given to the students, who have achieved more typical achievement levels of the subjects (modules) in the evaluation period.

338.2. If the number of the vacated State-funded places is bigger than the number of qualifying non-State funded students, who satisfy the criteria of academic success, these places shall be left free.

339. The competition for the State-funded places shall be carried out among the students of the same study field, study form and in the same year. The limits of the study program shall not be observed for rotation.

339.1. When the annual evaluation period ends, the competition for the State-funded places shall be carried out in each year of the studies of first cycle and integrated studies, save for the final year.

The mean of evaluations of exams/ independent work (project) of the students of certain semester or academic year is calculated by adding the evaluations provided in the semester's syllabus and by dividing their sum from the number of evaluations planned for the semester (year) in the syllabus.

If the mean of evaluations is calculated for the period longer than one semester, first of all the arithmetic mean of evaluations of each semester (year) of the student is calculated and then total mean of the student's study program in certain academic study period is derived.

329. If the same exam/ independent work (project) of the student was evaluated several times (it was retaken or re-defended due to negative grade), the arithmetic mean of all the evaluations of that independent work (project) used to calculate the mean of evaluations of certain semester or academic year should be calculated.

330. The result shall be rounded down to the hundredths parts of the grade in all the calculations.

331. The course's mean is determined by summing up the means of evaluations of all the students of that course and by dividing the sum from the number of students in the course, which evaluation means are calculated. When the mean of the course's evaluations is calculated, it is considered that the final evaluation of the subject, for which the student, who entered in the academic year 2011/2012 and later, has academic failure, is equal to zero. The mean of the student's studies calculated in such a way shall be included into the total mean of the course.

332. If the student, who entered in the academic year 2011/2012 and later, has academic failure(s) at the time of comparison of the studying results, it is considered that the mean of the studying results of the semester, when the student got academic failure, is equal to zero.

333. When the student has academic failures because of disease, inability to work or other justifiable circumstances, the permanent commission formed by the Rector's order shall decide about the comparison of his/her results. The representative of the Student Representative Office has to belong to that commission. The commission is formed from the deans of faculties, 1 representative of the Center of Studies and 1 representative of students delegated by the Student Representative Office.

334. The students, who are on academic leave or who have suspended their studies temporary, are not included into the row of the best students.

335. The row of the best students is formed by listing the means of the studying results in the decreasing order. The person authorized by the manager of the Center of Studies shall be responsible for formation of the rows of the best students funded and not funded by the State (rating) and submission of the lists and data to the dean's offices and other institutions.

336. The row of the best students is formed and the comparison procedures are carried out in 5 work days after the end of certain semester and deadlines set for completion of academic failures in this Regulation. The row of the best students is recorded on March 01 and October 01 of the current year, signed by the Faculty's dean and manager of the Center of studies, and stored in the office of the Faculty's dean until the end of studies of certain admission year and for one year after the completion of studies.

SECTION TWO COMPENSATION OF THE PAID TUITION FEE

340. The factually paid tuition fee or its part that does not exceed the standard tuition fee shall be compensated for the persons, who finished the first two years of studies the best (in case of extended studies – the first half of the study program) and/or from the third year of studies until the end of the first cycle or integrated studies (in case of the extended studies – the second half of the studies), when such persons were studying the appropriate period or its part at the University in the State-funded place of the first cycle or the integrated studies.

341. The list of the students not funded by the State, to whom it is suggested to compensate the tuition fee, is formed according to the row of the students at good standing formed following the first section of the chapter X of the Regulation.

342. The students indicated in the clause 340 herein shall be included into the list of the students not funded by the State, to whom it is suggested to compensate the tuition fee. Their total number cannot exceed 10 percent from the number of persons, who completed the first two years of studies (half of the study program in case of the extended studies) or the remaining years of studies in the same study field, were funded by the State, and were in the first cycle or in the integrated studies.

343. The following persons shall not be included into the list of the students not funded by the State, to whom it is suggested to compensate the tuition fee:

343.1. students with academic failures;

343.2. the students on academic leave or the students, who have temporary suspended their studies.

343.3. the students, whose mean of studying results is smaller than the mean of the studying results of certain period of certain study program and form of the same course;

343.4. the students, who are not entitled to the compensation of the tuition fee according to the Law of Science and Studies, article 72 part 1.

344. The mean of the students, to whom it is suggested to compensate the tuition fee, has to be higher than the mean of the student, who satisfies the requirements of the clauses 342 and 343 and who is not included into the list. If more than one student has the same mean and if there are students, to whom it is suggested to compensate the tuition fee, and if at least one student exceeds the quota indicated in the clause 342 herein if all such students are included into the list, any student with appropriate mean should not be included into the list.

CHAPTER XI PARTIAL STUDIES

345. The students may study individual subjects/modules of the study program in other universities following this Regulation, while the students of the recognized universities of other countries can study individual subjects/modules at the University.
346. The students may study according to the partial studies of coordinated study content and according to the partial studies of not coordinated study content.
347. The students shall be admitted or allowed to leave for partial studies according to the prepared program of partial studies approved by the sending and host institutions.
348. The registration number is awarded to the students, who come to the University, and they are entered into the database of study information system.
349. The results of partial studies shall be evaluated and approved by the certificate.
350. The total duration of partial studies in other higher education institutions cannot exceed 75 percent of total duration of study program, unless the legal acts or contracts provide otherwise.
351. The students, who leave for partial studies, have to make a trilateral contract of partial studies with the University and host higher education institution before the beginning of the studies. The contract shall contain coordinated study field, part and volume of the study program corresponding to the cycle.
352. The University's scholarship shall be granted to the student, who goes for partial studies according to the exchange programs conducted at University, following the valid regulations of scholarship award, according to the studying results before leaving for partial studies according to the exchange programs conducted at University. This scholarship shall be applicable during the entire study period.
353. The scholarship for the student, who returns after the studies according to the exchange programs conducted at University, shall be calculated according to the studying results achieved at University during the last semester, and this is valid until the end of the other semester at University.
354. The payment of any scholarship to the student shall not be cancelled during his/her studies abroad.

CHAPTER XII RECORD OF THE STUDYING RESULTS

SECTION ONE RECORD OF THE STUDYING RESULTS ACCORDING TO THE COORDINATED CURRICULUM

355. The studying results of the person, who has studied at other higher education institution or foreign higher education institution, according to the contract of partial studies, contract between the higher education institutions or higher education institution and foreign higher education institution, or having the content of studies coordinated on other legal ground, shall be recorded without any restrictions, provided any violations of the contract or other document, whereby the curricula have been coordinated, are not

- determined with regard to the studied subjects.
356. The person, who wishes to have the studying results recorded, shall submit to the University's administration the official stamped and signed study certificate from the other higher education institution. This certificate shall contain the information on the duration of studies at other higher education institution, names of the studied subjects (modules), evaluations and number of the accumulated credits. The record of the studying results shall be formalized by the record card, which form shall be approved by the Rector.
357. If the host higher education institution sends the certificate of studies later, the evaluation terms may be postponed until the beginning of the next semester.
358. If the subjects specified in the coordinated curriculum are left without being taught and accounted not because at the fault of the person sent for studies, when that person returns to continue the studies, the conditions have to be created for him/her to study and account for the lacking subject free of charge.
359. The student, who has not implemented or implemented incompletely the contract of studies, shall be provided with the possibility to complete academic failures in one or two semesters.
360. If the student leaves for partial studies just for some part of the semester, or if the beginning or end of the studies at foreign higher education institution does not correspond to the beginning or end of studies at University, the Faculty's dean may grant him/her a possibility to account for the remaining subjects (modules) at University before the leave or after the return. The evaluations of the subjects (modules) studied at University shall be entered into e-registers following this Regulation.
361. The ground for record of the studying results of the students, who have studied at foreign higher education institution according to the exchange programs conducted at University, is the European credit transfer and accumulation system (ECTS). Following the provisions of this Regulation, the academic recognition among the institutions of student exchange is planned. The period of studies at foreign higher education institution is recognized as a part of the study program, while the subjects (modules) with passing grades studied abroad, the received grades, credit tests and credits are completely recognized and recorded into the study program.
362. If during the official exchange programs conducted at University the student goes abroad just for some part of the semester, or if the beginning/end of the studies at foreign higher education institution does not correspond to the beginning or end of studies at University, the Faculty's dean may grant him/her a possibility to account for the remaining subjects (modules) at University before the leave or after the return. The evaluations of the subjects (modules) studied at University shall be entered into e-registers following this Regulation.
363. When the period of studies abroad according to the official exchange programs conducted at University ends, the student shall submit to the Faculty's representative assigned by the Rector (hereinafter program's tutor) the official stamped and signed study certificate from the foreign higher education institution. This certificate shall contain the information on the duration of studies at other higher education institution, names of the studied subjects (modules), evaluations and number of the accumulated credits. If the foreign higher education institution sends the certificate of studies later, the evaluation terms may be postponed until the beginning of the next semester.
364. In case of to the official exchange programs conducted at University, the University's Center of International Relations and Studies shall form the electronic study record card (hereinafter record card) in the University's LSMUSIS database, where the student's name, surname, faculty, study program, course, group, period of studies abroad, and the foreign higher education institution have to be indicated. The student shall complete the record card by transferring the names of subjects (modules) studied at foreign higher education institution and entered in the certificate of studies in the original language, the translation of the names into Lithuanian, accumulated credits and evaluations of the subjects (modules), according to the evaluation scale of the foreign higher education institution and/or ECTS grade scale.

365. When the student studies according to the official exchange programs conducted at University, the program's tutor, who receives the certificate of studies, shall:
- 365.1. determine and assess whether the subjects (modules) studied and accounted for abroad by the student and the accumulated credits correspond to the subjects (modules) provided in the contract of studies (as amended) and their volume in credits;
 - 365.2. check the electronic record card filled by the student, approve it in the University's LSMUSIS database and indicate, which subjects (modules) from the program studied by the student will not be needed to be studied or which will be studied only partially;
 - 365.3. sign the record card printed from the LSMUSIS database;
 - 365.4. enter the names of the subjects (modules) studied abroad and recorded at University translated into Lithuanian, the accumulated credits and evaluations into the student's e-credit book (traditional credit book for those enrolled before the 2017).
366. The evaluations of the subjects (modules) studied abroad according to the official exchange programs conducted at University shall be recorded according to the evaluation scale of the foreign higher education institution and/or ECTS scale and shall not be converted into the University's grading system.
367. The student, who has studied according to the official exchange programs conducted at University and has not implemented or implemented incompletely the contract of studies (for example, negative evaluations of the subjects (modules) were received) shall be provided with a possibility to complete the academic failures in one/two semesters (depending on the teaching timetable of certain subject/module at University).
368. If the student, who has studied according to the official exchange programs conducted at University, studied the subject/module, accumulated the credits for intermediate tests, but did not pass the final exam, s/he shall be allowed to retake an exam as specified herein. In such a case the subject/module is considered as partially studied at University and the received evaluation of the exam shall be entered into e-registers as specified herein.
369. If the student, who has studied according to the official exchange programs conducted at University, did not pass the subject/module and did not accumulate the necessary number of credits, s/he must study the subject/module in full volume of the studied study program with regard to certain period and volume of studies (calculated in credits). In such a case the subject/module is considered as studied at University and the received evaluation shall be entered into e-registers as specified herein.
370. If the content and credits of the subject studied abroad by the student, who was studying according to the official exchange programs conducted at University, correspond to the part of the module of the study program, s/he has to study the remaining part of the module at University. In such a case the module of the study program shall be recorded and entered into the record card by indicating, which part of the module the student has completed at foreign higher education institution, and how many credits in total amount of module's credits make the credits of the subject studied abroad.
371. The student, who has studied according to the official exchange programs conducted at University, shall submit to the person assigned by the Rector and responsible for record of results of the partial studies (hereinafter coordinator) the record card signed by the program's tutor. The coordinator shall follow the procedure stipulated in the first section of the chapter XII of this Regulation and record the studying results and sign the card. The signed record card shall be stored in the student's personal file.

SECTION TWO RECORD OF THE STUDYING RESULTS ACCORDING TO THE NONCOORDINATED CURRICULUM

372. The studying results of the person, who has studied at the same or other higher education institution or foreign higher education institution, according to the non-coordinated curriculum, shall be recorded after having assessed the formal requirements of the studying results and their compliance to subject-related requirements of the desired study program.
373. The person, who wants his/her studying results recorded, shall submit the following to the coordinator:
- 373.1. application showing the study program, which s/he studies or wants to study;
 - 373.2. documents about the studying results:
 - 373.1.1. diploma, its supplement (annex) and descriptions of subjects, if the person has acquired higher education;
 - 373.1.2. certificate of studies and descriptions of subjects, if the person is the student of higher education institution or foreign higher education institution or if s/he has studied but has not finished the studies;
 - 373.1.3. if the person wants to record the studying results in the same higher education institution, where s/he studies, has acquired higher education or has studied but has not finished the studies, the descriptions of subjects do not need to be submitted.
374. The coordinator shall assess the formal requirements of the studies following the legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania:
- 374.1. status of the higher education institution or foreign higher education institution. If necessary, s/he may address other institutions regarding the required information about certain higher education institution;
 - 374.2. according to the documents presented by the person – sort of studies, type of study program, form of studies, etc.
375. The program's tutor shall assess the compliance of the studying results and planned-to-study program to subject-related requirements of the desired study program according to the procedure defined below, with regard to the diploma's supplement (annex), certificate of studies and descriptions of subjects:
- 375.1. the subject of the study field/fundamentals or special (professional) part is recorded if its volume makes at least two thirds of the volume of the study field/fundamentals or special (professional) part of the subject in the desired study program and satisfies the essential objectives and main parts of the curriculum, or if the fundamentals or special (professional) part of the studies do not contain a subject suitable for comparison, whether the general requirements of these subjects are observed and the skills and knowledge provided in the program are granted;
 - 375.2. the subject of general education part is recorded if it complies with essential objectives and main parts of the curriculum;
 - 375.3. the elective subjects of the student are recorded without any restrictions;
 - 375.4. the graduation work and/or final exam shall not be recorded;
 - 375.5. the total volume of subjects of college/non-university study program recorded instead of the fundamentals of studies of the first cycle of the University, which is

- planned to be studied, or special subjects, cannot exceed half of the planned University study program of the first cycle;
- 375.6. it is possible to record not more than 75 percent of the volume of planned study program; the recorded part may contain the subjects of other (lower) study cycle or study (teaching) program when compared to the planned study program, but the volume of these subjects cannot exceed:
- 375.6.1. 50 percent of the volume of study program of the first cycle that is planned to be studied;
- 375.6.2. 25 percent of the volume of study program of the integrated or the second cycle's studies that is planned to be studied.
376. If the subject-related requirements of the studied or desired program are satisfied, the program's tutor may do the following while submitting the offer to record the subjects to the coordinator:
- 376.1. record several studied subjects as one;
- 376.2. record one studied subject instead of several;
- 376.3. record part of the studied subject if its volume is at least 2 credits.
377. The coordinator shall decide about record of the studying results in one month after receipt of all the documents indicated in the clause 373 herein, taking the suggestions of the program's tutor into account.
378. The decision about record of the studying results shall be formalized by the study record card, which has to be approved by the Rector.
379. The names of the recorded subjects, their volume in credits and evaluations shall be entered in the supplement (annex) of the issued diploma, in the certificate of studies instead of the subjects provided in the study program by indicating nearby, in which higher education institution the subject was studied.
380. The names and evaluations of the subjects, names of the foreign country and foreign higher education institution, and other data related to the record of the studying results shall be entered into the supplement (annex) of the diploma or into the certificate of studies in the Lithuanian language.

SECTION THREE

APPEALS REGARDING RECORD OF THE STUDYING RESULTS

381. If the person does not agree with the decision about the record of the studying results, s/he has a right to bring an appeal to the Rector in 10 days after the decision-making provided in the clause 377 herein.
382. When the Rector receives an appeal of the student or listener, s/he shall form the appeal commission that should analyze whether the studying results satisfy the subject-related requirements of the desired study program. The appeal commission shall be formed from 2 experts suggested by the Center of Quality Evaluation of Studies, 2 representatives of other higher education institution or Ministry of education and Science, and 1 student delegated by the Student Representative Office. The appeal commission shall make a decision by majority of votes in 10 days after the formation of the appeal commission. The student, who has appealed about the record of the studying results, shall be notified about the decision of the appeal commission not later than in 2 work days after the decision has been made.
383. The person, who does not agree with the decision of the appeal commission regarding the evaluation of formal requirements has a right to bring an appeal in 10 days after the student's notification about the made decision to the appeal commission of evaluation and recognition of qualifications acquired abroad formed by the Minister of Education and Science.

384. The University's commission of dispute settlement does not examine the appeals regarding the record of studying results.

CHAPTER XIII

COORDINATION PRINCIPLES OF THE STUDIES AND PARTICIPATION IN OTHER ACTIVITY OF THE UNIVERSITY

385. The objective of coordination of the studies and participation in other activity of the University is to create favourable conditions for the students to take part in other activity of the University: to represent the University and its students and to glorify the University's name. The participation in other activity of the University covers the following:
- 385.1. participation in the obligatory events when required by office or when the University is represented (meetings of the Council, Senate, councils of faculties, University's commissions or mass events, where the University's representation is needed for the University, city in Lithuania or outside its territory);
- 385.2. participation in the events beneficial for the University (glorification of the University's name, representation of the students' organizations or academic community, etc.).
386. The participation in other activity of the University stipulated in the clause 385.1 herein shall be considered justifiable circumstance when the issues of attendance and evaluations are discussed. In such a case the disciplinary punishments cannot be imposed for the missed works or evaluations and the conditions shall be created to implement the program and/or account within the semester.
387. The participation in other activity of the University stipulated in the clause 385.1 herein may be considered justifiable circumstance and can be taken into account when the issues of attendance and evaluations are discussed. The students, who want to go to certain event, have to coordinate their leave with the Faculty's dean and inform certain units conducting the studies about their leave and inability to participate in the lectures, works or tests.

CHAPTER XIV

INCENTIVES AND ACADEMIC PUNISHMENTS OF THE STUDENTS AND LISTENERS

388. The following incentives may be applied for the students, who have distinguished in academic, creative or sport life at University:
- 388.1. citation;
- 388.2. letter of acknowledgement;
- 388.3. diploma of scientific, creative or sport achievements;
- 388.4. scholarships of studies, incentive scholarships (including onetime), nominal scholarships;
- 388.5. other incentives, which do not contradict to the legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania and University's internal legal acts.
389. The incentives indicated in the clauses 388.1 - 388.3 and in the clause 388.5 of this Regulation may be applied for the listeners, who have distinguished in academic, creative or sport life at University.
390. The following punishments may be imposed to the students and listeners, who have violated the requirements of the laws of the Republic of Lithuania, University's statute and other legal acts, the provisions of this Regulation and other legal acts regulating the University's internal order, Code of Academic Ethics:

- 390.1. warning;
 - 390.2. reprimand;
 - 390.3. slating;
 - 390.4. expel from University.
391. The student or listener may be expelled from the University following the procedure defined in this Regulation if s/he has violated grossly the provisions of the Law of Science and Studies, University's Statute or acts defining internal order, offended the duties of student or listener, or ethical principles. The following are considered to be gross violations:
- 391.1. the student's or listener's behavior that discredits the University, humiliates human dignity, or other actions, which violate directly the human constitutional rights;
 - 391.2. violation of fair principle of competition, copying, plagiarism or other cheating related to the evaluation of the skills of student or listener during exam or other test;
 - 391.3. systemic violation of disciplinary, internal order or ethical norms manifested by the fact that the student or listener, to whom the disciplinary punishments were applied at least once in the last twelve months, violates again the provisions of the Law of Science and Studies, University's Statute or acts defining internal order, offended the duties of student or listener, or ethical principles;
 - 391.4. violation of equal rights of men and women or sexual harassment of members of academic community or other persons;

 - 391.7. being insober or intoxicated with drugs or toxic substances during the study process at University;
 - 391.8. non-implementation of financial obligations according to the contract of studies without having any justifiable reason.
392. In the case specified in the clause 391.8 herein the punishment may be imposed only if the financial obligations have not been implemented for the period exceeding 14 work days after the payment deadline. When the aforementioned term expires, the student is warned that if s/he does not implement the financial obligations in 14 work days, the punishment will be imposed. If the student does not implement the financial obligations within the additional term, the punishment is imposed as defined herein. The Rector has a right not to impose the punishment and to arrange the non-implemented financial obligations in parts if such arrangement is requested by the student in the LSMUSIS.
393. If the punishment is imposed to the member of the Student Representative Office, the consent of this representative office has to be received, except when the punishment is imposed for non-implementation of requirements of the study program. The representatives of the S Student Representative Office have a right to express their disagreement and notify the person responsible for the punishment hereof in 3 work days after having learnt about the application to impose punishment. If the disagreement of the Student Representative Office is not received within the indicated period, it is considered that the disagreement does not exist. If the Student Representative Office expresses its disagreement with the punishment, it may be imposed to the member of the Student Representative Office only by the Senate's resolution.
394. The Rector is entitled to apply all the incentives specified in the clause 388 and all the punishments specified in the clause 390 herein. The punishments specified in the clause 390 herein shall be imposed by the consent of the Rector's office upon the recommendation of the Faculty's dean or Student Representative Office. The Rector shall make the decision regarding incentive or punishment and this decision shall be formalized as an order. The requests to impose punishments or incentives shall be submitted through the dean of certain Faculty.

395. The recommendation of the Faculty's dean to the Rector to impose the punishments specified in the clauses 390.3 and 390.4 herein shall be discussed in the closest meeting of the Rector's office.
396. The deans of the faculties may impose the punishments indicated in the clauses 390.1 - 390.2 and all the incentives indicated in the clause 388 herein (save the scholarships). The requests to impose punishments or incentives to the student shall be submitted directly to the dean of certain Faculty.
397. The Rector or the Faculty's dean may impose punishments to students or listeners by their own initiative as well.
398. If the punishment is imposed by the initiative of the Rector or the Faculty's dean, they shall inform the Student Representative Office about the received request not later than in 1 work day so that the disagreement with the punishment stipulated in the clause 393 herein could be considered, if necessary.
399. The requests to impose punishments to the students or listeners submitted according to the clauses 392, 395 and 397 of this Regulation are registered by indicating the request's date and place and (when the request is written) the person receiving such a request has to sign it.
400. The Rector or the Faculty's dean shall make a decision to apply the incentive or punishment not later than in 5 work days after consideration in the Rector's office, while in the case described in the clause 394 herein – only when the agreement/disagreement of the Student Representative Office with the punishment is received or when the deadline indicated in the clause 393 for the consent of the Student Representative Office matures.
401. The Rector or the Faculty's dean shall make one of the decisions indicated below:
 - 401.1. to impose punishment;
 - 401.2. to refuse imposing punishment;
 - 401.3. 401.3. to apply incentive;
 - 401.4. to refuse applying incentive.
402. The decision provided in the clause 401 of this Regulation shall be formalized by the Rector's order or dean's decree accordingly.
403. The person, who applied for punishment or incentive and the student or listener, with regard to whom the incentive or punishment was applied, shall be notified about the made decision not later than in 2 work days after the issuance of the order.
404. The teacher may ask the student or listener to leave the class because of his/her improper behavior that obstructs the studies. This has to be recorded as missed class and the manager of the unit conducting the studies has to be notified.
405. The student or the listener, who does not agree with the incentive or punishment, may address the Commission of Dispute Settlement in written not later than in 10 work days after receipt of the decision of the Rector or the Faculty's dean, following the procedure of settlement of students' disputes with administration and other employees approved by the Senate.

CHAPTER XV GRADUATION

406. The study program is completed with the evaluation of student's competences by presentation of the graduation work (project) and/or final exams and when the person implements all the requirements of the selected study program.
407. According to the Faculty's dean's proposal and following the Rector's permission, the final examination / graduation work in the program may be taken or presented by a student. The decision to permit the student to take the final exam or to present the graduation work shall be formalized by the Rector's order.
408. The student, who has academic failures, is not allowed to take the final exam or to present the graduation work.
409. When the Rector issues the order to permit the student to take the final exam or to present the graduation work, the Rector or vice Rector for studies has to pass a resolution determining the date of final exam or presentation of the graduation work not later than in 10 work days after such order's issuance and not later than 10 days before the final exam or presentation of the graduation work. At the same time the commission of the final examination/graduation work and commission of appeals have to be formed.
410. An evaluation (grade) of the final examination / presentation of the graduation work in the program is entered in the section of final examinations at the end of the student's e-credit book (traditional credit book for those enrolled before the 2017) and in electronic register of the final examination / presentation of the graduation work.
411. the student who failed to pass or did not take the final examination of the program before the end of the semester or who failed to present or did not present at all the graduation work in the program shall be expelled from the list of students.
412. At the request of the student and upon the recommendation of the Faculty's dean, not earlier than after one year the Rector may allow for a certain fee re-taking of the final examination or re-presenting the graduation work in the program, which has been passed with a passing grade for the purpose of receiving a higher grade. The approval of the Rector's office is needed.
413. At least 15 credits shall be appointed to prepare the final (graduation) work (project) or final (graduation) work (project) and prepare for the final examination (in case defined in the description of the study field) for study programs of the first cycle (bachelor).
414. At least 30 credits shall be appointed to prepare the final (graduation) work (project) or final (graduation) work (project) and prepare for the final examination (in case defined by legal acts) for study programs of the second cycle (master).
415. If the student disagrees with the evaluation result (grade) of the final exam/graduation work, s/he has the right to appeal following the terms and conditions stipulated in the section VIII of the chapter IX of this Regulation.
416. A person who has completed the studies awarding degree shall receive the documents of higher University education in the form determined by the legal acts:
- 416.1. to the persons, who complete the studies of the first cycle (undergraduate) – diploma confirming the Bachelor's degree and/or professional qualification in the study field and its supplement or the diploma and supplement confirming the Bachelor's degree in major and minor study field;
- 416.2. to the persons, who complete the studies of the second cycle (graduate) – diploma confirming the Master's degree and/or professional qualification in the study field and its supplement;
- 416.3. to the persons, who complete the integrated studies – diploma confirming the

- Master's degree and/or professional qualification in the study field and its supplement;
- 416.4. to the persons enrolled in the year 2017 or later and graduating degree awarding studies, documents proving the higher university education shall be issued;
- 416.4.1. to those graduating first cycle studies – diploma and supplement proving the bachelor degree in the study field and(or) diploma proving professional qualification and diploma supplement or diploma and supplement proving bachelor degree in the main and minor study fields;
- 416.4.2. to those graduating second cycle studies – diploma and supplement proving the master degree in the study field and(or) diploma proving professional qualification and diploma supplement.
- 416.5. to the persons, who complete the joint study program of different parties, one document conforming the qualification of higher education of the higher education institutions – partners shall be issued, or two or more documents confirming national qualification of higher education may be issued by two or more higher education institutions – partners following the procedure stipulated in the legal acts of the country of each higher education institution – partner.
417. The Diplomas with Honors shall be issued:
- 417.1. to the graduates of the first cycle programs, who have implemented the degree study programs with especially high evaluation results, i.e. all evaluations of the subjects/modules of the study program are not lower than grade 8 (“good”) and average grade is not lower than 9 (“very good”), and the graduation work and/or final exam is evaluated as “very good” (9) or “excellent” (10);
- 417.2. to the graduates of the second cycle programs, who have implemented the degree study programs with especially high evaluation results, i.e. all evaluations of the subjects/modules of the study program are not lower than grade 9 “very good” and average grade is not lower than 9,5, and the graduation work is evaluated as “excellent” (10);
- 417.3. to the graduates of the integrated study programs, who have implemented the degree study programs with especially high evaluation results, i.e. all evaluations of the subjects/modules of the study program are not lower than grade 8 (“good”) and average grade is not lower than 9 (“very good”), and the graduation work is evaluated as “very good” (9) or “excellent” (10).
418. If the student has studied part of the program's subjects/modules in other higher education institution, this additional information shall be provided in the supplement of the issued diploma:
- 418.1. The subjects/modules studied in other higher education institution shall be entered into the supplement to the diploma issued by the University following the information available in the University's LSMUSIS electronic database about the subjects/modules studied by the student in other higher education institution and recorded at the University, their volume in credits and evaluations;
- 418.2. the subjects/modules studied in foreign higher education institution shall be listed in the diploma's supplement and it shall be indicated, in which country and which higher education institution these subjects/modules were studied;
