

2024
September
17
–
October
3

Prof. Sandor Goodhart (Purdue University, USA) lecture series at LSMU

EXPANDING MEDICAL HUMANITIES WITH EMMANUEL LEVINAS' IDEAS

A series of five captivating public lectures and an interdisciplinary workshop to explore the connections between E. Levinas' ideas, medical ethics, and the Western literary tradition, and to uncover the question of infinite responsibility for the other individual.

Meetings: Tuesdays and Thursdays, 16:00-18:00 (EEST), September 17 to October 3, 2024

Onsite: LSMU Emmanuel Levinas Center, V. Putvinskio 54, Kaunas, Lithuania

Online: Events will be available on Zoom

Meeting 1: Tuesday, September 17, 2024; 16:00 to 18:00:
The Philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas

Meeting 2: Thursday, September 19, 2024; 16:00 to 18:00:
Sophocles, Oedipus Tyrannus

Meeting 3: Tuesday, September 24, 2024; 16:00 to 18:00: Euripides, The Bacchae.

Meeting 4: Thursday, September 26, 2024; 16:00 to
18:00: Shakespeare, The Tragedy of Othello

Meeting 5: Tuesday, October 1, 2024; 16:00 to 18:00:
Dostoyevsky, Notes from Underground

Meeting 6: Thursday, October 3, 2024; 16:00 to 18:00;
Workshop on Medical Ethics in View of the Philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas